Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Llewellyn Sulzle and Ethel Emma Clara Grace first met at Northwestern Lutheran Academy in Mobridge. Following their graduation from the Academy, they were united in marriage on January 16, 1944, at Zion Lutheran Church in Mobridge, South Dakota. The ceremony was witnessed by Rueben Eisenmann and Pauline Dabbert and based on II Thessalonians 3:5, "May the Lord direct your hearts into God's love and Christ's perserverance"; and,

WHEREAS, Shortly after their marriage, Llewellyn departed for the Pacific to serve his country in the United States Army during the World War II conflict while Ethel worked with the telephone company in San Jose, California; and,

WHEREAS, Lew and Ethel were blessed with ten children: Rose Ann, Donna, Diana, Lewis, Christian, Mary Lou, David, Peggy, Sandra and Michael, who in turn presented them with 24 marvelous grandchildren; and,

WHEREAS, Besides raising their ten children, Lew and Ethel opened their hearts and home to Marlene and Warren Sulzle in 1947, loving and caring for them as their very own; and,

WHEREAS, They always believed that God would provide, and He did. Llewellyn farmed near Akaska, owned and operated the grocery store in Akaska, was a partner in the local hardware store, owned and operated Mobridge Plumbing and Heating, and worked as an electrician with Quenzer Electric. Ethel worked on the farm, in the grocery store, the nursing homes in Mobridge and is presently employed at the Mobridge Community Hospital; and,

WHEREAS, On January 22, Lew and Ethel will celebrate the Fortieth Anniversary of their marriage that began on that beautiful, warm, spring-like day; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that the Governor note the important events in the lives of South Dakotans who epitomize the very best qualities of the citizens of our state:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, January 22, 1984, as in South Dakota, and I join the people of this state in thanking Lew and Ethel for the fine example they have set for all of us in love, marriage and family life.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Four
